

2001 DELAWARE 2001 Resident Individual Income Tax Return

January 2002

Dear Taxpayer:

This booklet contains your 2001 State of Delaware individual income tax forms and instructions. There were few changes for tax year 2001. The changes are listed below, so please read the instructions carefully to determine how they apply to you.

- A Historic Preservation Tax Credit was enacted for those persons making “qualified expenditures” in connection with the restoration and rehabilitation of certified historic properties in Delaware. Expenditures qualifying for the credit may be incurred for approved rehabilitation now, but the credit may not be claimed until after July 1, 2002.
- Individuals who could not use the Resident EZ form because they had a credit for taxes paid to another state will be allowed to use the EZ return this year. A new line was added to the EZ return for this credit.
- On-line filing of the first Extension (Form 1027): The application for an automatic extension, Form 1027, may be filed on-line at www.state.de.us/revenue. If you file the Form 1027 on-line and you owe tax, the payment will be provided by direct debit from your checking or savings account.
- On-line filing of Estimated payments: Estimated payments may be filed on-line at www.state.de.us/revenue. Payment of estimated tax on-line will be provided by direct debit from your checking or savings account.
- A “Persons 60 or Over Checklist” was added to assist those over 60 years of age in identifying and claiming all applicable deductions.

Note: The federal tax rebate received in 2001 should not be included as income on your Federal or Delaware tax return.

Reminder: You will receive a 1099G from the state if you received a refund last year, requested a carryover, used a refund to make a contribution to one of the Special Funds on your Delaware return or had your refund intercepted.

For lightning-fast Delaware refunds, you have three convenient options:

- 1. Electronic Filing: Delaware, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, is offering joint Federal/Delaware electronic filing. Electronic filing is a convenient, fast and easy method of filing Federal and Delaware individual income tax returns. See your Tax Advisor for more details concerning the Federal/State Electronic Filing Program.
- 2. On-line Filing: More than 90% of all taxpayers will be able to file their Delaware Personal Income tax return on-line. Filing on-line is free. Go to www.state.de.us/revenue and click on our on-line filing icon. If you file on-line, we will:
  - Typically issue your refund within 7 days, if additional documentation is not required.
  - Accept your tax liability payments (up to $500) by credit card.
  - Send e-mail verification that your return was received.
  - Guarantee there will be no unnecessary delays resulting from mathematical errors.
- 3. Or: Consult the IRS’s “E-file Partners” webpage: www.irs.gov/elec\_svs/partners for more Federal/State electronic and on-line options.

Sincerely,

William M. Remington

RESIDENT INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Who Must File

- If you are a Full-Year Resident of the State, you must file a tax return for 2001 if, based on your Age/Status, your individual adjusted Delaware gross income (AGI) exceeds the amount shown below.

AGE/ STATUS	Filing Status			Filing as a dependent on another person's return
	1 & 5 Filing Status	2 Married filing a joint return	3 & 4 Married filing separate*
Under 60	$9400	$15450	$9400	$5250
60 to 64	$12200	$17950	$12200	$5250
65 and over OR BLIND	$14700	$20450	$14700	$7750
65 and over AND BLIND	$17200	$22950	$17200	$10250

*This dollar amount represents your individual Adjusted Gross Income, NOT a total combined with anyone else.

**Assumes only one spouse meets age or blindness criteria.

- If you are a Part-Year Resident, you must file a Delaware tax return:
  - If you had income from any source while a resident of Delaware, or
  - If you had income from a Delaware source while you were a non-resident of Delaware.

Part-Year Residents may elect to file either a resident or non-resident return. You may wish to prepare both a resident and non-resident return. File only the return which is more advantageous for you.

Part-Year Residents electing to file a resident return – This option may be advantageous if, during the period of non-residency, you had no income from sources in other states and/or your only income was from Delaware. Report all income from Delaware and from all other sources on Form 200-01.

Part-Year Residents electing to file a non-resident return – This option may be advantageous if, during the period of non-residency, you had any income from other states or sources outside of Delaware. Report all income from your Federal return in Column 1 and all Delaware Source income in Column 2 of Form 200-02. To determine your Delaware tax, your modified Delaware source income will be divided by your Federal modified income to compute a proration decimal. Your tax liability and personal credits will be prorated accordingly, based on the proration decimal.

Note: Volunteer Firefighter and Child Care Credits cannot be taken on the non-resident return (Form 200-02).

- If you are a Non-Resident who had gross income in 2001 from sources in Delaware, you must file a Delaware Tax return.

What Form to File

	200-01 R	200-03 EZ	200-02 NR
Full-year residents	✓ or...	✓
Part-year residents	✓ or...	✓ or...	✓

Who is a Resident

A resident is an individual who either:

- Is domiciled in this State for any part of the taxable year; or
- Maintains a place of abode in this State and spends more than 183 days of the taxable year in this State.

A domicile is the place an individual intends to be his permanent home.

An individual can have only one domicile. A domicile, once established, continues until the individual moves to a new location and exhibits a bona fide intention of making it his or her permanent home.

Full-Time Students with a legal residence in another state remain legal residents of that state unless they exhibit intentions to make Delaware their permanent residence.

NOTE*: Foreign Travelers – If you were out of the United States for at least 495 days in the last 18 consecutive months but (at the same time) you maintained a permanent place of abode in this State at which you, your spouse, your children or your parents were present for more than 45 days, you are considered a resident of this State.

*The above NOTE does not apply to members of the Armed Forces, employees of the United States, its agencies, or instrumentalities.

Minors – Disabled – Deceased

If an individual is unable to file a return because he is a minor or is disabled, the return shall be filed by his authorized agent, guardian, fiduciary or the person charged with the care of the person or property of such individual. See the federal instructions for authorized signature.

If an individual is deceased, his final return shall be filed by his executor, administrator or other person responsible for the property of the decedent.

When to File

Individual income tax returns are due on or before April 30, 2002, for all taxpayers filing on a calendar year basis. All others must file by the last day of the fourth month following the close of their taxable year.

Extension of Time to File a Return

CAUTION:
THERE IS NO EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PAYMENT OF TAX

An extension of time to file your tax return is granted when the Application for Automatic Extension (Form 1027) includes a payment for the amount of any tax reasonably estimated to be due. Interest accrues at the rate of 1% per month, or fraction of a month, on any unpaid tax from the original due date of the return until paid.

If an extension is not filed and if there is a balance due when the return is filed, a penalty will be charged for filing the return late. If you have doubt as to whether the final return will show a balance due, file Form 1027 for an extension.

To extend your due date for submitting your completed income tax return (from April 30, 2002 to August 15, 2002), submit the following to the Division of Revenue no later than April 30, 2002.

- Your payment of any balance of tax liability estimated to be due for tax year 2001 AND
- The completed copy of Form 1027.

The application for an automatic extension, Form 1027, may be filed on-line at our website at www.state.de.us/revenue. If you owe tax with your extension for 2001 and file on-line, you must use a direct debit from your checking or savings account. If you choose not to file on-line, a blank copy of Form 1027 is available from the Division of Revenue or from our website above.

Blanket requests for extensions will not be granted. You must submit a separate application for each return.

To extend your due date beyond August 15, 2002, before the expiration of the extension granted on Form 1027, file a photocopy of your Federal Form 2688, Additional Extension to File, with the Delaware Division of Revenue. The approved federal extension will extend the due date of your Delaware return to the same date as your federal extension due date and must be attached to your Delaware return.

You may be required to make Estimated tax payments if you receive Unemployment Compensation, a lump sum distribution or a large bonus at the end of the year.

Also, you may be required to make Estimated tax payments if you are a Delaware resident and:

- Your employer does not withhold Delaware tax or
- You work in another state whose tax withholding rate is lower than Delaware's.

The estimated tax booklet, containing the worksheet for computing your estimated tax liability and the payment vouchers (Form 200-ES), will be sent after January 15, 2002. If you did not file estimated taxes for 2001 and need estimated tax coupons, call the Estimated Tax forms voice mailbox at (302) 577-8588 to order them or call toll free 1-800-292-7826 (Delaware only).

To estimate your 2002 tax liability prior to receiving the booklet, complete your 2001 return using estimated income and deduction amounts for 2002.

Who Must File Estimated Taxes for 2002

To determine if you must pay estimated income tax payments complete the following:

1. Enter the amount of your total estimated tax liability for 2002 (See the tax table or tax rate schedule.) _____ 1
2. Enter the amount of your estimated Delaware withholding taxes and other credits for 2002. - _____ 2
3. Enter the balance due (Line 1 minus Line 2). = _____ 3
4. You DO NOT have to file estimated taxes if:
  - Line 3 is less than $400, or
  - Line 2 is at least 90% of Line 1, or
  - Line 2 is at least equal to 100% of your total tax liability for 2001. Use 112% of your 2001 tax liability if your 2001 Delaware adjusted gross income exceeded $150,000, or if you are filing status 3 and your 2001 Delaware adjusted gross income exceeded $75,000.

Estimated Tax Penalty

You may owe this penalty if the amount you owe (Line 19, Balance Due) is more than 10% of the tax shown on your return (Line 14, Balance).

Exceptions to the Penalty

You will not owe the penalty if your 2000 tax return was for a period of 12 full months AND ONE of the following applies:

1. You had no tax liability for 2000, or
2. The total of Line 13 (Total Non-Refundable Credits) and Line 18, (Total Refundable Credits) on your 2001 return equals at least 100% of the tax liability shown on your 2000 return and estimated tax payments for 2001 were made on time. Use 106% of your 2000 tax liability if your 2000 Delaware adjusted gross income exceeded $150,000, or if you are filing status 3 and your 2000 Delaware adjusted gross income exceeded $75,000.
3. For Special Rules regarding Farmers and Fishermen and for waivers of the penalty please see the separate Instructions for Form 200-ES and/or Form DE2210.

Penalties and Interest

1. Interest – Underpayment or late payment

The Delaware Code provides that interest on any underpayment or late payment of income taxes due shall accrue at the rate of 1% per month, from the date prescribed for payments to the date paid.

2. Penalty – Late-filing of balance due return

The law imposes substantial penalties for failure to file a timely return. Late-filed returns with a balance due are subject to a penalty of 5% per month up to a maximum of 50% of the balance due.

3. Penalty – Negligence/fraud/substantial understatement

The law also provides severe penalties for a false or fraudulent return, or for a false certification. The mere fact that the figures you report on your Delaware return are taken from your Federal return will not relieve you from the imposition of penalties for negligence or for filing a false or fraudulent return.

4. Penalty – Failure to pay

The law provides a penalty of ½% per month (not to exceed 25%) of the net tax liabilities for failure to pay the tax liability due on a timely filed or late filed return. This penalty is in addition to the interest charged for late payment.

5. Penalty – Failure to File/Pay Estimated Taxes

The law provides a penalty of 1½% per month of the computed tax payment for failure to file/pay estimated taxes due. This penalty is in addition to those penalties and interest listed above. The penalty is also assessed if the estimated payment is filed late.

Federal Privacy Act Information

Social Security Numbers must be included on your income tax return. The mandatory disclosure of your Social Security Number is authorized by Section 306, Title 30 of the Delaware Code. Such numbers are used primarily to administer and enforce all tax laws, both civil and criminal, for which the Division of Revenue has statutory responsibility.

Members of Armed Forces

While you are stationed in Delaware your military and non-military pay is subject to Delaware state income tax as follows:

Members of the Armed Forces
Are You a Legal Resident of Delaware?	Delaware Filing Required
	Military Active Duty Income	Other Income Earned in DE	Other Income Earned in Other States
Yes	Yes*	Yes*	Yes*
No	No	Yes	No

*Whether you are stationed in Delaware or not.

Your state of legal residence is the same as it was when you entered the Armed Forces unless you voluntarily changed it while in the Armed Forces. For example, if you were a legal resident of Delaware when you entered the Armed Forces, you remain a legal resident of Delaware for Delaware state income tax purposes unless you voluntarily abandoned your Delaware residency and established a new legal domicile in another state.

If you change your legal residence, in the year you change, you are a part-year resident of both states. A change in legal residence is documented by filing DD Form 2058 and DD Form 2058-1 with your military personnel office.

All income of a non-military spouse is taxed in the state where he or she resides. The year the spouse moves into or out of Delaware, he or she is a part-year resident of Delaware. Using these definitions, when one spouse is a resident of Delaware and the other spouse is a part-year/non-resident, separate returns should be prepared splitting income, personal credits, and deductions as though SEPARATE FEDERAL RETURNS had been filed.

The following examples illustrate this:

1. Airman John Green, who is a legal resident of Delaware, was ordered to duty in, and moved his family to, New Jersey. The family has no income other than his military pay. Airman Green will file federal and Delaware tax returns only. A New Jersey state tax return is not required.

2. Sergeant Paul Smith, whose domicile is Ohio and to which he is liable for income taxes, has been on active duty in Delaware for 12 months. Sergeant Smith is married and both he and his wife have non-military income from Delaware. Sergeant Smith will file as a non-resident of Delaware (using Form 200-02 NR) reporting all his income and taking his share of personal credits and deductions as though the Smiths had filed separate federal returns. (Sergeant Smith should contact Ohio for his filing requirements for Ohio.) Mrs. Smith would have the option to file as a resident or a non-resident if she moved into or out of Delaware during the year, and report her income and take her share of personal credits and deductions as though separate federal returns had been filed.

Amended Returns

If any changes made to your federal return affect your state income tax liability, you are required to report the change to the Delaware Division of Revenue within ninety (90) days after the final determination of such a change and indicate your agreement with the determination or the grounds of your disagreement. Use Form 200-01-X to change an income tax return you have already filed, and attach a copy of any federal adjustments.

Rounding Off Dollars

Dollar amounts on your return must be rounded off to the nearest whole dollar. This means that amounts from 50 to 99 cents are increased to the next dollar. For example, $1.50 becomes $2.00 and $1.49 becomes $1.00.

Address Change

If you move after you file your return, you should notify the Division of Revenue of your address change. Please be sure to include your and your spouse's Social Security Number(s) in any correspondence with the Division of Revenue, or you may change your address by calling the Address Change voice mailbox at (302) 577-8589. You may also call toll free 1-800-292-7826 (Delaware only).

FRONT OF FORM 200-01

Preprinted Label

Attach the preprinted label provided with your booklet or postcard to the front of the form in the space provided, if your name, address, and social security number has NOT changed since last year. NOTE: To protect your privacy, the number on your label is not your Social Security Number.

DO NOT use the mailing label if your name, address, Social Security Number or marital filing status HAS changed since last year. Print your name (s), address, and Social Security Number(s) in the space provided. If you are married, give names and Social Security Numbers for both you and your spouse whether you file joint or separate returns. If you are a Jr., Sr., II, III, etc., please indicate it in the Jr., Sr., III, block.

Filing Status

Please indicate your filing status by marking the appropriate box.

FILING STATUS 1 – SINGLE TAXPAYER

If you were single on December 31, 2001, consider yourself Single for the whole year and use Filing Status 1.

FILING STATUS 2, 3, AND 4 – MARRIED TAXPAYERS

You may file Joint, Separate, or Combined Separate Delaware returns even if you filed Joint federal returns. However, if you filed Separate federal returns, you must file Separate Delaware returns. By using Filing Status 4, you are in fact filing two separate returns which have been combined on the same form for convenience.

NOTE: Generally, separate returns (filing status 3 or 4) will be advantageous if both spouses have a Delaware adjusted gross income in excess of $9,400.

If you elect to use Filing Status 3 or 4, both you and your spouse must compute your taxable income the same way. This means if one itemizes deductions, the other must itemize. If one takes the standard deduction, the other must take the standard deduction in computing taxable income.

For Filing Status 3 or 4, you each report only your own income, personal credits, deductions, and one half of the income derived from securities, bank accounts, real estate, etc., which are titled or registered in joint names.

FILING STATUS 5 – HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD

If you filed as Head of Household on your federal return or qualify as certain married persons living apart, you may file as Head of Household on your Delaware return.

PART-YEAR RESIDENTS

If you were a part-year resident of Delaware in 2001 electing to file as a full-year resident, indicate the dates of your Delaware residency.

DE 2210 Indicator

Check the "Form DE2210 Attached" box if you have calculated the Underpayment of Estimated taxes using Form DE2210. Use Form DE2210 to determine if you owe a penalty for the underpayment of estimated tax and to calculate the amount of the penalty.

To obtain Form DE2210, please contact our offices or visit the Division of Revenue website at www.state.de.us/revenue. Do NOT check this box if a completed DE2210 is not being sent with your return. Do NOT submit a Federal Form 2210 instead of a Delaware Form 2210.

LINE-BY-LINE INSTRUCTIONS

Next, complete the back of this form beginning with Line 26. Instructions begin on Page 8. Once the back is completed, return to the front and use the following instructions.

NOTE: If you have no Delaware modifications and do not elect to itemize your deductions, you may eliminate completing page 2 of the return and begin on Line 1 of the Delaware return by entering your Federal Adjusted Gross Income from Federal Form 1040, Line 33; 1040A, Line 19; 1040EZ, Line 4, or Telefile, Line 1.

Delaware Adjusted Gross Income

Enter the amount from Line 39 on the back of your Delaware return.

2a

Standard Deduction

The law allows you to take a standard deduction in lieu of itemizing your deductions. If you elect to take the Delaware STANDARD DEDUCTION, be sure to check the block on Line 2a and enter the appropriate amount as listed below:

Delaware Filing Status	Standard Deduction	Enter on Line 2
1	$3,250	Column B
2	$6,500	Column B
3	$3,250	Column B
4	$3,250	Column A & B
5	$3,250	Column B

NOTE: If you have itemized deductions greater than your allowable Delaware standard deduction, you can itemize deductions on your Delaware return even though you did not itemize deductions on your federal return.

2b

Itemized Deductions

If you elect to itemize deductions:

- Check the block on Line 2b.
- Complete Section C, Lines 40 through 46 on the back of your Delaware return.
- Enter the amount from Line 46 on Line 2.
- Attach a copy of Federal Form 1040 Schedule A to your Delaware return.

If you claimed a standard deduction on your federal return, you may still elect to itemize your deductions on the Delaware return. In this case, complete and attach Federal Schedule A, showing the itemized deductions you would have claimed on the federal return.

3

Additional Standard Deduction

The additional standard deduction is allowable only for those persons 65 and over or blind, electing to use the Delaware standard deduction (Line 2a).

NOTE: If you elect to itemize your deductions, you do not qualify for the additional standard deduction even though you may be 65 years of age or older and/or blind. If you itemize deductions, do not check the "65 or over" box.

If you qualify for the additional standard deduction:

- Be sure you checked the block on Line 2a to indicate you are using the standard deduction.
- Check the appropriate box(es) relating to age and/or blindness on Line 3.
- Multiply the number of boxes checked on Line 3 by $2,500 and determine the total (a maximum of $5,000 per individual).
- If you are filing a combined separate return, enter the amount pertaining to each spouse (boxes checked x $2,500) in the spouses' respective columns ($5,000 per spouse age 65 or over and blind; $2,500 per spouse age 65 and over or blind).
- All other filing statuses should enter the total for both individuals in Column B.

Tax Liability

If Line 5 is less than $60,000, use the tax table to compute your tax liability. If line 5 is $60,000 or greater, use the tax schedule at the end of the tax table to compute your tax liability. Enter your tax liability on Line 6.

Lump Sum Distribution

This line applies only when a participant's entire interest in a qualified plan is received in a single year. In the case of someone not self-employed, the distribution must have been made because of the participant's death or separation from employment, or after the participant had attained age 59½. In the case of a self-employed person, it must have been made because of the participant's death or after the participant reached age 59½ unless he or she was previously disabled.

Delaware does not impose a penalty for early withdrawal from IRAs and Pension Plans. The law provides for separate tax treatment of lump sum distributions received from qualified pension plans, profit sharing or stock bonus plans. The law provides for ten year averaging of the distribution designated to be taxed as ordinary income. Under this provision, lump sum distributions will be taxed separately as ordinary income in the year of receipt. However, the federal "rollover" provisions apply to this income, so recipients have sixty days in which to invest the proceeds of the lump sum distributions into an IRA or other qualified pension plan without being subjected to tax. Persons receiving a lump sum distribution in 2001 must complete Delaware Form 329 to compute the tax liability on this income. The amount of tax (from Line 16, Form 329) should be placed on Line 7 of the Delaware return. You must attach Form 329 to your return. If you received a lump sum distribution, but did not qualify for or did not elect lump sum averaging on your federal return, you can still use Form 329 for Delaware purposes. See instructions for Line 34 to exclude your lump sum distribution from your Delaware Adjusted Gross Income.

Amounts received as pensions from employers (including pensions of a deceased taxpayer) may qualify for an exclusion from Delaware taxable income, subject to the limitations described below.

Gambling Losses

Wagering losses can be deducted only to the extent of wagering gains. Under some circumstances Delaware Lottery Winnings may exceed the amount of net wagering gain subject to federal tax. The amount of subtraction is therefore limited to the lesser of:

If you answered YES to all, Enter $2,000 on Line 37

If you answered YES to all, Enter $4,000 on Line 37

NOTE: If you are filing a joint return and only one spouse qualifies for this exclusion, you should consider filing separate returns (Filing Status 3 or 4).

Delaware Net Operating Loss Carryovers

Taxpayers who were prevented in previous years from carrying federal net operating losses to their Delaware returns (because of Delaware's $30,000 limit on net operating loss carrybacks) are permitted to carry these additional losses forward on their Delaware return in years following the loss year.

NOTE: If you claimed a standard deduction on your federal return, you may still elect to itemize your deductions on the Delaware return. In this case, complete and attach a Federal Schedule A showing the itemized deductions you would have claimed on the federal return.

If you are filing a joint federal return and separate Delaware returns, the deductions must be determined as if each spouse had filed separate federal returns.

If you are unable to specifically allocate deductions between spouses, prorate the deductions based on the ratio of your separate incomes to total joint income. For example, if one spouse earns 60% of the household income and the other earns 40%, designate 60% of the deductions to the spouse earning 60% of the household income and 40% of the deductions to the spouse earning 40% of the household income.

SPECIAL FUNDS

DELAWARE'S NONGAME WILDLIFE, ENDANGERED SPECIES AND NATURAL AREAS PRESERVATION FUND

Wildlife is a gift that is often taken for granted. Several hundred species of mammals, birds, reptiles, insects and other animals are native to Delaware, and more than 90 percent are nongame – that is, they cannot legally be hunted or fished. Many are common and can be enjoyed as close as your own backyard. Others are in danger of disappearing from our landscape. The Nongame Wildlife Tax Checkoff enables Delaware taxpayers to donate a portion of their state income tax refund for efforts to ensure that all wildlife and the habitat they need in order to flourish will be around for years to come. Please lend your support through a tax-deductible contribution on Line 21A. Next time you spot a bald eagle or a bluebird, you'll be glad you did.

U.S. OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

Delaware athletes are among the many across the nation who are training hard to earn a spot on the U.S. Olympic Teams that will compete in the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Utah. Your dollars now are vital to provide the proper training and encouragement so necessary to fielding the best team possible. Please show your support by checking Line 21B, U.S. Olympic Committee, with a tax-deductible donation.

EMERGENCY HOUSING ASSISTANCE FUND

Homelessness is a growing concern in Delaware. Families with children now represent the greatest proportion of the homeless. Crisis situations such as unemployment, family conflicts, displacements, evictions, fire, or utility failures force people to turn to the community for emergency housing. Delaware's non-profits need your support to close the gap between available resources and increasing costs of operating programs for the homeless.

You can help by checking Line 21C, the Emergency Housing Assistance Fund and contributing a portion of your refund or by sending a donation along with your tax liability payment. Your contributions will be distributed by Delaware's Health and Social Services Division of State Service Centers/Office of Community Services, directly to shelters providing emergency housing.

CHILDREN'S TRUST FUND

The Delaware Children's Trust Fund has as its mission the prevention of child abuse and neglect in Delaware. It accomplishes this through public awareness campaigns, technical assistance to child abuse prevention projects and an annual Prevention Grant program. Prevention projects focus on many issues that are designed to help children and families avoid instances of abuse before they can occur and change a life forever. All donations from the tax checkoff go directly to the annual Prevention Grant program, which funds child abuse prevention projects, in the three counties of Delaware. By checking Line 21D, child abuse prevention projects are making Delaware a safer place for your children.

DELAWARE BREAST CANCER COALITION, INC.

The Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition, Inc. was established in 1991 to raise awareness of breast cancer by providing information, support and education in a caring and responsive manner on early detection and treatment. As a state wide agency we accomplish this through: an interactive touring exhibit of cancer survivors entitled Living and Giving; education and outreach programs such as Young Survivors in Action; and an annual panel symposium featuring leading experts in the fields of ethics, cancer research and treatment. By checking Line 21E, a portion of your tax refund will work to reduce the rate of breast cancer in Delaware.

ORGAN AND TISSUE DONATION AWARENESS TRUST FUND

As a Delaware resident, YOU can make a difference. Your contribution to the Organ and Tissue Donor Awareness Trust Fund will be used to fund donation awareness programs throughout the State of Delaware. By increasing awareness, we can increase the number of organ and tissue donors and help save lives. By checking Line 21F, you can help.

DELAWARE DIABETES EDUCATION FUND

The American Diabetes Association is the nation's leading nonprofit health organization providing diabetes research, information and advocacy. Diabetes is a serious disease that affects 16 million Americans, and is the most expensive disease in America. The mission of the American Diabetes Association is to prevent and cure diabetes and to improve the lives of all those affected by diabetes. To fulfill this mission, the American Diabetes Association provides various programs including diabetes education, camp scholarships for children, health fairs, and other diabetes outreach activities. You can help the more than 66,000 Delawareans with diabetes by checking Line 21G.
