PART D - EXEMPT CONVEYANCES

If transaction is exempt from Realty Transfer Tax, be certain that all of the above information (including market value of the real estate) is complete and accurate and explain the basis for the exemption:

The seller authorizes the Division of Revenue or such other appropriate state agency as may be designated to obtain any appropriate or necessary federal income tax forms, including their attached schedules or other attachments, and any other related papers filed by such seller which relate solely to the said real estate to which title is purported to be conveyed by the deed or instrument being recorded. Delaware law requires an income tax return to be filed for the taxable year during which there was disposition of real property within this state.

INSTRUCTIONS FORM 5402
REALTY TRANSFER TAX RETURN AND AFFIDAVIT OF GAIN AND VALUE

Every person who makes, executes, delivers, accepts, or presents for recording any document, except those exemptions defined or described in Section 5401 of Title 30, or in whose behalf any document is made, executed, delivered, accepted or presented for recording, shall be subject to pay for and in respect to the transaction or any part thereof, a Realty Transfer Tax at the rate of two percent (2%) of the value of the property represented by such document, which tax shall be payable at the time of making, execution, delivery, acceptance or presenting of such document for recording. Said tax is to be apportioned equally between the Grantor/Seller and Grantee/Buyer.

The following shall also be subject to the Realty Transfer Tax provisions:

1. Any writing purporting to transfer a title interest or possessory interest for a term of more than five (5) years in a condominium unit or any unit properties subject to the Unit Properties Act.
2. Any writing purporting to assign or transfer a leasehold interest or possessory interest in residential property under a lease for a term of more than five (5) years.
3. Any writing purporting to transfer a title interest in a mobile home which has been permanently affixed to realty by sewer, electric, and water connections.
4. Any writing purporting to transfer an intangible interest in a corporation, partnership, or trust where the beneficial owner(s) before the conveyance(s) owns less than 80% of the beneficial interest after the conveyance(s).
